A delegation comprising Reeve Fox and Councillors Goetjen, Bugnall and Roeder was appointed to meet with the district engineer to inspect the road at Dog Pound creek on Carstairs blind line with a view to altering the present diversion.

Home Economics Display Held at School on Friday

Great interest was shown in the home economics display and models' parade held in the Didsbury High School Friday afternoon, June 10, with a large number of town and country residents on hand to view the showing of articles made by the students.

The afternoon's program opened with the modelling of dresses, skirts and blouses made by the home economics class. Grade 7 students led the parade and were followed by students of Grades 8, 9, 10 and 11 modelling costumes of their own creation. Each student was introduced by Miss Margaret Robertson who, with her usual witty remarks, told of secret hardships each of the girls encountered in making the garments and how their teacher, Mrs. Kimmel, came to the rescue.

Highlight of the afternoon was the modelling of ladies' clothes by five high school boys. Leroy Benson was charming in a sun suit, Duane Gebers was a picture of comfortable laxation in a kimono, Don Robertson displayed an exceptional figure in a bathing suit, and Dorn Gillrie in a formal gown and Walter Scheidt in a sophisticated black two-piece outfit paralleled like professional models.

The home economics display of needle work, canning, sewing and fancy work was appreciated by those in attendance. The boys' display of shirt work was also well worth seeing, with all exhibits being made by the school students under the supervision of Mr. Ralph Hoover.

Ten was served in the home economics room in the school basement under the direction of Mrs. Kimmel.

Mr. Hammell gave assurance that he would do everything possible to assist in getting this road completed. To further this effort the meeting requested that Mr. Ford interview Councillor George Goetjen.

Mr. Ford also reported that the government engineer had estimated the cost of a hard-surfaced approach from Didsbury to the highway at about $14,000.

C.E. Reiter, representing the Agricultural Society, asked for some assistance in support of the annual fair.

A clean-up, paint-up campaign will be left in abeyance until the new Sanitary Inspector commences his duties.

The Palace Bakery was visited first, then the cancer dressing station after which lunch was eaten under the trees on St. George's Island. After looking around the grounds the next point of interest was the fish hatchery. Some of the members remarked it was the only place they had seen where they had a desire to fish.

The Crystal Dairy was next and everyone was treated to a frozen treat. After a little shopping the party went to Mrs. Margaret Brown's for a most delicious cold supper. Many thanks are extended to Mrs. Brown, not only for the supper at which she was assisted in serving by Miss Norma Hoag, but for the whole day's pleasure she had so well planned out.

During the business meeting it was decided that as many Leaguers as possible attend the annual Southern Alberta Zone W.L. rally at Shoubridge Bridge, Calgary, on June 19. It was also decided to have a weiner roast at the "rocks." Following the business meeting a farewell party was held for Harold Sandau, who is making his new home in Calgary. Games were played and Harold was presented with a pen as a farewell gift from the Leaguers.

The evening closed with the hymn "God Be With You Till We Meet Again."

Roy Smallwood Leads in Crow, Magpie Consect

There was only a small attendance at the regular meeting of the Didsbury Fish and Game Association on Friday evening, and the main business dealt with was the predator bird campaign and the Raven picnic.

A report from E.B. Grange, chairman of the predator control campaign, indicated that the crow and magpie contest was now in full swing and large numbers of predator birds' feet were being turned in.

The standing in the contest at the first of the week was: Roy Smallwood 645 pairs; Berrie Fulkert 463 pairs; Ken Holmquist 296 pairs; Laverne Neufeld 262 pairs and Leslie Goetjen 269 pairs. Many others have around 100 pair and in view of the fact that the Fish and Game Association provides a special crest to all contestants turning in more than 100 pairs of crow and magpie feet in any one season, it was decided to order an additional 25 crests immediately.

The stocking of Lowrie Creek with trout from the Raven Fish Hatchery was discussed and an effort will be made to have this local stream stocked during the summer.

A report was given on the joint meeting of executive members with Olds and Innisfail, which was held recently at Olds, where it was decided to hold the annual picnic at the Raven Hatchery on July 31st. Plans are now being completed for this big summer event and it is hoped that more Didsbury members will assist with the project.

Before the meeting adjourned it was decided to call a meeting of the executive towards the end of July to complete picnic arrangements.

SUCH WAS LIFE

Facing the winter without potatoes is not a desirable outlook. As there was no soil under cultivation we had to buy our supply for the first season. Innisfail was our nearest supply.

The day we decided on which to make the trip was a typical Indian Summer day and the horses were sweating as we hit the trail for Innisfail, thirty miles distant. We were in our shirt sleeves and remarked of how on the sixth day of November such a day could be possible in this so-called frozen north.

We filled our sacks in the evening and prepared for an early morning get-away. A wind was whistling through the cracks of the boarding house and awoke us, and by the time we were on our way heavy snow flakes were whirling in merry style. It was getting colder and by the time we were half way home the trail was filled with snow winding on our wheels and bailing on the horses' hooves.

Travelling was heavy by the middle of the afternoon and it was zero weather. The wagon wheels were grinding out their screeching song of winter. It was getting still colder and darkness began to take over daylight. The trail was no longer visible, still ten miles or more to go, nothing to guide you but the instinct of the horses when snow covers the prairie everything looks the same.

We arrived home at 10 o'clock that night. Most of the potatoes were frozen so we had sweet potatoes all winter.

WEDDINGS

GRANT—FRANKLIN
On Saturday, May 21st, under an arch of pink and white wedding bells, the lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Franklin was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when their only daughter, Dorothy Lemaude, became the bride of Mr. Lorne B. Grant, second son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Grant of Calgary.

Rev. M. Baker performed the ceremony and the Wedding March was played by Mrs. W. Franklin.
The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a floor-length dress of white sheer with long sleeves and a sweetheart neckline. Her long veil was adorned to a coronet of orange tulle and her only ornament was a gold pendant, a gift of the groom. She carried a bouquet of pink tea roses.

Miss Hazel Van Haften was maid of honor and wore a gown of pale blue with matching sweetheart hat. She carried a bouquet of yellow carnations.

Miss Shirley Grant, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. She wore a pink gown with a matching sweet-heart hat and carried blue carnations.

Little Beverley Heidebrecht, cousin of the bride, was flower girl.
She wore a long blue taffeta dress and carried a bouquet of flowers.

Mr. Earl Grant, brother of the groom, was best man.

The bride's mother wore a pale pink jersey dress with a corsage of deep pink roses.

The groom's mother wore a black dress with contrasting flowered bodice and a corsage of yellow roses.

During the signing of the register Mrs. W. Franklin played "I Love You Truly."

A reception was held on the lawn and the table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake and bouquets of lilacs. Mrs. Bill Frizell had the honor of cutting the cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant left for a honeymoon to Yellowstone Park,
and various points in Montana.
For travelling the bride chose a beige gabardine suit with pink and brown accessories.

Guests at the wedding were Mr.
and Mrs. E. Grant Sr., Mr. and Mrs. E. Grant Jr. and Gale and Lennie, Barbara and Maxine
Grant, Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Berscht,
Mr. and Mrs. H. Heidebrecht, Mr.
and Mrs. D. David and Jimmie, Johnnie Johnson, Mrs. Wright and Lloyd, Mr. and Mrs. Art Larsen,
Leon Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. R.
Franklin, and Olga Lewchuk, all of Calgary; Mr. and Mrs. C. Heid, Crossfield; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Frizzell and Shirley, Mr. and Mrs.
Jack Rattray and Grant, Mr. and Mrs. John Riemer, Mr. and Mrs.
Baker and Miss Denyse Haener,
all of Cremona.

The happy couple will reside in Calgary.

AN ADDRESS TO HIS AGING BODY

(By Edward Cameron)

Now you are growing old. Your hearing and strength are failing.
Your resistance to cold is diminishing. You cannot climb or run as you once could. In a word you are running down. In a short time, perhaps a year or five or ten years
—you will cease to breathe and your heart will stop beating.

When you can go no further I will leave you to go free. When we separate I shall continue to exist. A Power greater than you or I started us on our journey.
Your journey is approaching its end and you are aware of it. My journey has just begun and I know it because I have never been more alive. Our separation is not one of sadness but one of joy. You are weary and want to stop. I am longing to alight from this slowing vehicle and go on without you.

News of the North

A copy of No. 1, Vol. 3 issue of the "News of the North," Yellowknife, N.W.T., dated May 20th, arrived at the Observer office this week. This copy is of particular interest to me, at least, in that the editor and manager is E.R.
(Ted) Horton, the eldest son of the writer. It appears that the company publishing the News of the North underwent some reorganization recently and Ted finally emerged in the position referred to.

He should make good at it for Ted has both ability and competence (inherited, no doubt) and in addition has had considerable experience, commencing with the Vegreville Observer and ending as a reporter for the past four years with the Edmonton Balletin. He left the observer in 1939 to enlist in the Royal Edmonton Regiment and was overseas during the War. Starting as a private or dogface, he ended as a lieutenant, or shavetail, which is a pretty fair indication of the appreciation of his superior officers, or brass hats.

As an editor and manager, Ted's troubles, whatever they may be, are now looking him square in the eye. Like his old man has found by long and tough experience, publishing a weekly newspaper and digging up the weekly pay-roll calls for very much more than an 8-hour day.
He will have plenty of worries, but I can pass along to him the comfortable information that most of the things I ever worried about never happened.

So, go to it, Ted. You have your Dad's best wishes and moral support, too, for whatever the latter is worth.—(A.L. Horton, in Vegreville Observer).

Men's trousers are now made of nylon. Shower-proof, they are handy for golf, gardening, fishing.

MARGARINE AND MITTS

The manufacture and distribution of the butter substitute, margarine, is now permitted in Canada, thanks mainly to pressure by consumers. A widespread campaign staged by representatives of urban areas convinced the government that Canadian people are entitled to buy the butter substitute at around 40c a pound rather than the real thing at around 60c a pound. Right now the Japanese are trying to sell mitts and gloves in Canada. They are prepared to lay down in Canada woolen knitted gloves at 31c a pair compared with a Canadian price of 70c; also woolen mitts at 28c a pair as compared with a price of 35c for the Canadian product.

Canadian manufacturers, testifying before the Tariff Board, say the Japanese gloves are made of fine wool, finely textured and are of equally as good quality as the Canadian product. In fact they say the Japanese embroidery is superior to the Canadian.

Now mitts and gloves are a necessity in our cold winters. We need them to protect our hands just as much as we need butter for our stomachs. In all fairness the Japanese product should be allowed free entry.

It may be contended that the Japanese mitts and gloves are produced by "cheap labor." Well, margarine is made from coconut oil, a product of tropical islands where cheap labor is utilized; also of cottonseed oil, a by-product from the southern States, where negro labor is not very highly paid.

Senator Euler, Mr. Sinclair and other public men who lead the fight for margarine should take up the cudgels for imported mitts and gloves. Consumers cannot be segregated into special areas.—Brooks Bulletin.

OIL FIELD JOBS RESERVED FOR CANADIANS

Honorable Humphrey Mitchell, Minister of Labor, recently announced that as a result of the enquiry made by the Trades and Labor Council of Edmonton and the Branch of the Canadian Legion of that city, he had received reports from the Employment Offices in Calgary and Edmonton in regard to the complaint that the labor field in the oil-drilling area near Edmonton was being over-run by importation of laborers from the United States.

The reports indicated that there were a number of drilling outfits, which by reason of the attractiveness of the new Edmonton territory, had brought full crews from the United States, due largely to the fact that they had not known what the labor conditions would be like in Canada. The Minister pointed out that these drilling outfits had gradually changed their American crews to Canadian and in future it had been arranged that skilled men only would come from the States and that the unskilled portion of the crew would be filled with available Canadian labor.

The Department of Labor had been working closely with the Immigration Branch of the Department of Mines and Resources and a definite understanding had been reached with an association of oil-drilling operators, as a result of which Canadian workers would be fully protected, Mr. Mitchell said.

The Minister went on to say that in drilling operations the crew was usually composed of four drillers, one tool pusher, and about sixteen other workers described as "roughnecks." It was understandable that skilled drillers and tool pushers would not be available in Canada so that there was no objection at all to bringing them from the United States. On the other hand, the unskilled workers could readily be found at this time in Canada and the drilling operators had agreed that no attempt would be made to bring in unskilled workers from the United States and that they would use the services of Canadian workers for all but six or eight of the key jobs on each outfit.

The National Employment Service reported that quite a number of men had gone to the Edmonton district and despite the fact that more Canadian workers would be used on American drilling outfits, there would be plenty of men in the district to fill the needs.

ALBERT BLISS MCGORMAN THE LIBERAL CANDIDATE

At the nominating convention at Innisfail on March 9th, Albert Bliss McGorman, Penhold, was chosen to stand as Liberal candidate for the Red Deer federal election.

A farmer by preference, Mr. McGorman has ever taken an active and productive part in the affairs of his district. He was born of Irish stock in Albert county, New Brunswick, in 1885 and was educated there.

With his father and two sisters he moved to a farm near Innisfail in 1905. Married in 1914, he continued farming until 1918, when he was forced to move to B.C. because of his wife's health.

Two years later McGorman returned to Alberta and in 1930 he and his wife settled in Penhold where they still reside on the farm which for reasons of his health, he has been forced to rent.

Mr. McGorman's public activities have been wide and various: a member of the Penhold school board for several years and its chairman for a time, an elder in the Presbyterian Church since 1912, president of the Agriculture Society in Innisfail for several years, and an off-time judge of livestock in his early days.

In addition Mr. McGorman has taken a keen interest in U.F.A. activities. For seven years he was director of the association and presented the brief for the U.F.A. at the Freight Rates Inquiry in Edmonton in 1947.

Once a gold medal man from the Agricultural Short Course at Oida, and according to his supporters, Albert Bliss McGorman fares well to being the gold medal candidate for the federal riding of Red Deer.

Yes, the John Deere Model "D" Tractor is celebrating its twenty-fifth birthday... and it's a proud anniversary of service, dependability, and economy.

First put into production late in 1923, it won immediate and widespread popularity as farmers verified its outstanding fuel economy... marvelled at its simple, rugged construction. Ever-growing farmer demand has kept the Model "D" in the John Deere line for a quarter of a century. No other tractor ever has established such an enviable record.

Improved through the years, the Model "D" remains unchanged in its basic principle—two-cylinder design... with greater dependability, economy, and longer life through fewer, more rugged parts.

This is a family affairYOUR FUTURE ... AND CANADA'S Conditions have been good the last few years. More people are working than ever before — making more, spending more, saving more.

Isn't that what you want? After all, you have a family to think about... and you are planning for their future...

The Liberals are planning and working for your family's future too.

Here are some of the things the Liberals are doing:

Family Allowances are increased. Already a billion dollars has been invested in Canada's children. Millions of boys and girls are better clothed, fed and housed — have a better chance for an education and a real start in life — because of this Liberal measure. It has brought new security and well-being to countless Canadian homes.

In housing, too, the Liberals have taken the lead in providing Canadians with decent homes. More homes have been built in Canada, in relation to population, than in any nation. Already a million Canadians live in homes built since the war. The Liberal government is ready to help solve the low-rental housing problem and has offered its cooperation to provinces and municipalities.

Then, there is the Liberal health program. Already federal grants are helping the provinces to increase their health services. But the Liberals' aim is a nation-wide contributory health insurance plan which will end, for everyone, the tragedy of inadequate health care and the financial strain of lengthy illness.

Or take employment. Liberal measures are helping to maintain employment in Canada at record levels, and at the same time unemployment insurance reserves have been building up. The government has encouraged enterprise and high production. Plants have expanded, new industries started up. New opportunities are being created every day.

Old Age Pensions and pensions for the blind have been steadily increased by the Liberal government. But it isn't stopping there. Its aim is a nation-wide plan of contributory pensions which will help everyone to enjoy a comfortable and secure old age — automatically and as a right.

These are all part of the Liberal program of social betterment... a program to achieve a national standard of social security and human welfare which assures the greatest possible measure of social justice to all Canadians.

Government To Combat Coyotes With Airplanes

The Alberta government plans to do something shortly about the coyote-wolf menace in the province.

Although no definite plans for the government's action have been announced it's learned that an airplane would be brought into use in effect to battle the raiders which for years have taken heavy tolls of sheep in the province.

Negotiation for the use of the airplane is being carried out with the pilot of the plane and it is expected that the operation will get underway within the next few weeks.

The use of an airplane carrying an expert hunter has proven successful in the southern part of the province and probably will be tried in the northern sections.

The government action follows complaints by sheep ranchers, who have informed the government that unless some action was taken to kill off the coyotes and wolves, they would quit the sheep raising business.

THE FABULOUS YEAR
OF 1915

Oldtimers like to look back on the year 1915 when Western Canada produced a record bushel per acre wheat crop. While the average in Western Canada was not large—13,807,000 acres—production totalled 300,187,000 bushels, giving an average yield per acre of 26.9 bushels.

Manitoba seeded 12,800,000 acres to wheat that year and harvested 221,312,000 bushels, or an average per acre of 25.1 bushels.

Alberta seeded 2,138,000 acres in 1915 and harvested 66,538,000 bushels, or an average of 31.1 bushels per acre.

The year 1914 was rather droughty and an under-averaged crop was produced. There was little reserve moisture carried into 1915 and the early spring was dry. Towards the latter part of the month of May copious rains began to fall and these persisted during the entire growing season. Some phenomenal wheat yields were recorded as a result.

The average price received by farmers for the 1915 crop was 90c a bushel.

Between them, Canada's two major railway systems maintain nearly 50,000 miles of track, 10,000 bridges, 180,000 culverts and over 100 tunnels.

SUMMERFALLOW EARLY

(By H.G.L. Strange)

The most precious element we have which makes or mars our prairie crops is certainly rainfall, and rainfall on these prairies is almost always scarce. Every effort should be made, therefore, by farmers to preserve in the soil as much rainfall as possible. Summerfallow is one of the best methods known of preserving rainfall for, as numerous experiments have shown, rains quickly soak into the soil to an even depth of many feet, are locked there and are preserved for future use by growing plants. It is therefore, most important that summerfallow which like an enormous sponge six feet deep, holds and preserves moisture should be done as early as possible in June; for in June more rainfall occurs than in any other month. Rain which falls on land to be summerfallowed before the actual cultivating is done is, to a great extent, used by weed growth and so is lost. To summerfallow early in June, therefore is one of the best methods known of assuring the best possible yield of crops for the following year.

Each cultivation to kill weeds on summerfallow necessarily loses some moisture. Some farmers are experimenting with 2, 4-D to destroy weeds, after the first cultivation has been done, so avoiding the loss of moisture from stirring up the soil.

NEW BARLEY LABORATORY

A new research laboratory to assist plant breeders in evaluating the quality of new barley hybrids was opened in Winnipeg June 2. The laboratory is to be part of the operations of the Barley Improvement Institute incorporated in 1948 and sponsored by the brewing and malting interests. The primary object of the Institute is to improve Canadian barley standards. Another job of the Institute is to conduct the National Barley Contest initiated by the brewing and malting industries in 1946. The contest is being continued in 1949. Director of the Barley Improvement Institute is T.J. Harrison, one of the country's foremost authorities on barley.

The laboratory is located in space adjacent to the offices of the Barley Improvement Institute, 206 Grain Exchange Building, Winnipeg.

Super Salesmanship!

During the war when goods were in short supply, little salesmanship was required to sell our agricultural products.

Yet, by selling under world prices, the Liberal government has cost the Canadian farmer an estimated two billion dollars!

At a time when they should have been looking to the future and making long-term contracts for our food products, the Liberal government were contracting with the United Kingdom, our best customer, for only one and two year periods.

What has been the Result?

We have lost most of our markets! Britain has contracts with other countries, many of them behind the Iron Curtain, for periods up to ten years. Excluding the wheat contract, we have only three contracts in effect at the present time!

FOR THE FARMER'S PROTECTION

The Progressive Conservative Party Will:

- Restore the Canadian Wheat Board Act to its original purpose . . . a marketing agency for wheat producers
- Extend the Wheat Board's powers to include handling of coarse grains on a voluntary basis
- Take aggressive and immediate action to regain lost markets and develop new ones
- Include Representatives from all farmer's organizations on all Boards dealing with agricultural products
- Achieve security of export markets through foresighted negotiations
- Enact legislation based on the principle of democratic producer control.

ALL WEATHER ROAD TO B. C. BOUNDARY

For the first time, Alberta will have an all-weather highway this year through to the B.C. border in the Peace River district.

Officials of the Alberta Motor Association have received information that the last six miles of the highway between Beaverlodge and the B.C. boundary now are being gravelled. This work will link with the improvements which the public works department in the coast province plan for the road from the Alberta border west to Pouce Coupe where it connects with the road to Dawson Creek, southern end of the Alaska highway.

Another major project on the Peace River highway is the construction of a 700 foot steel highway bridge over the Smoky river at Goodwin crossing, between High Prairie and Grand Prairie. This $350,000 bridge is scheduled to be opened in July with appropriate ceremonies.

The completion of this bridge will be another link in through traffic operations, as delays caused by the ferry being unable to operate owing to unseasonable conditions will be eliminated.

It is commonly believed that a cross-eyed person sees double. This is not true. Such persons usually use only one eye.

Critical Crop Weeks

Recent wide spread rains in Western Canada, while by no means assuring a crop, are very welcome. They have eased what was becoming a very critical situation, but they will have to be repeated several times in the next six weeks to guarantee a harvest.

Right from the start there have been worries about the prairie situation this season. No surplus moisture has accumulated during the bone dry fall and rainfall has been scant indeed this spring.

In most sections that means there is no surplus moisture to carry the crop through any serious drought and heat. The situation is similar to a wage earner with no savings in the bank. So long as the weekly cheque comes in everything is all right, but a few days off the payroll and things begin to get serious.

But scare headlines are not called for yet.

With some timely and general rain during June and above all no scorching heat there is a good chance of at least an average crop and perhaps much better.

FORECASTS WEATHER

An easy-to-operate weather guide which is said to accurately forecast local weather conditions for the next 24 hours is reported in the Financial Post. The lightweight, handy-size guide contains a series of 13 full-color cloud formations for the amateur forecaster to compare with the current sky conditions, a small compass to aid in determining the direction of the wind, and 112 separate forecasts for summer and winter. Basic principle is that wind and cloud formations reveal coming short period weather changes, California maker states. Instructions are shown on the instrument to make the guide a self-contained unit. An arrow is turned on the guide to the observed cloud and wind conditions. Matching of these two factors brings the correct forecast into view.

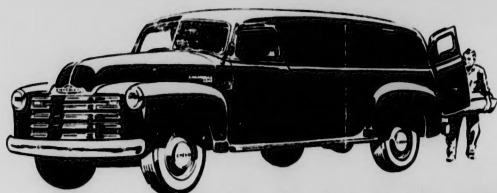

Good, As Any

A friend the other day asked me to tell him which spot on the earth, of all the places I have been, was the most beautiful. What a question, and this, off the bat, so to speak I said Princess Street in Edinburgh and a view of the Rocky Mountains from the hills around Calgary when the first snow has fallen on the Rockies and the plains are still free of it. To get the full impact of the vision of the beauty you must see it early in the morning before most people are out of bed. It is too glorious a thing to share and yet, abounding in beauty to spare.

Speaking of Calgary reminds me of Lethbridge. I like it. The first time I visited Lethbridge was in June, forgot the date, time flies so fast why waste time mentioning it. The town was wet. I got a horse and buggy and drove out to the Experimental Farm, just why should a farmer like myself linger in the streets of the town when there's an experimental farm to see. I wondered if I would ever get back. Everybody down there was supremely happy. No living man could take the smile from the face of a Lethbridgian when the rain is falling. I love that town, as we grow older the larger becomes the list of places we want to see again.

Once I arrived at Lethbridge when the town was chuck full, there was no room at the Inn. There was another chap with me and we looked over the hotel register. It was on the Farmers Advocate at that time, and there in the register was the name of Fred Rhyml, one of our live stock editors. It was one o'clock in the morning. We knocked at the door. "Come in," he said, "only thieves and rich people lock their doors." Then he grabbed a quilt off the top of the bed, rolled over on the floor and nothing would induce him to get up. We turned into his warm bed. I hope in the land where he has gone there are hills and plains, cow punchers and cattle, cowboys and prairie chickens, nothing else would be Heaven for Fred Rhyml.

WESTCOTT ITEMS

We understand the car that went off the grade into the slough east of Westcott on Tuesday night last was Mr. Kendrick of Didsbury, and although he wasn't driving at the time he was a passenger, but no one was injured. The first folks along the road the next morning were quite startled at seeing the car there in such a precarious position and were more than a little concerned about where the occupants were, and how the car got into the water.

Mrs. Chas. Topping and baby daughter came home from hospital on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Kenschuh and nephew, Donald, spent Sunday at Sylvan Lake.

A few little showers fell over the week end and we're all hoping that it will get in the notion one of those days and really rain.

On Tuesday night of last week a large crowd of neighbors and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Klink and family gathered at the Westcott school to bid farewell to them as they leave to make their future home in Didsbury. The gathering enjoyed a ball game and later went down to the church basement where Rev. Bainbridge on behalf of the large crowd, presented the Klinks with a purse. Both Mr. and Mrs. Klink thanked all present for their thoughtfulness and kindness and invited all to visit them in their new home. Lunch was served by the ladies.

The Westcott W.I. members entertained their husbands and families on Friday evening and another large crowd was in attendance. The evening's entertainment consisted of a ball game at the school and then all went to the church basement where a couple of contests were enjoyed. A delicious lunch of sandwiches, cakes, cookies and W.I. birthday cake, ice cream and coffee was served.

Is there Natural Gas for Export?

At present withdrawal rates there is now enough PROVEN reserves of natural gas to last Alberta 70 years. This does not include potential reserves. Allowing for INCREASED consumption and the portion contemplated for export, withdrawals over 50 years would be 11 trillion cubic feet. The Natural Gas Commission accepted geologists' statements that existing reserves will be increased MANY TIMES OVER.
Since then there have been many important new discoveries.
Minimum estimates of potential reserves are at least 28 trillion cubic feet in the near future, enough to last, WITH EXPORT, 125 years.
